

6516205345.txt

I think that the local broadcasters are being unreasonable. If they get the FCC to squelch this service, will they silence the local NOAA weather broadcasts next. They do not provide a continuous streaming up to date traffic and weather service that I can access while out in my vehicle and do not want to have to compete. Do let them squelch this new service from XM or other satellite broadcasters.

Lewis Stephens